FIRE MARSHAL 1C

Fire Investigation Program Management (2018)

This is the 4th course in the new 5 course State Fire Training Fire Marshal series that was released in 2018. It is the most up to date curriculum offered in any state that focuses on the professional qualifications found in NFPA 1037, Standard on Fire Marshal Professional Qualifications. The Fire Marshal certification series is a stand-alone certification and you do not have to be a Fire Prevention Officer or Plans Examiner to earn Fire Marshal certification.

This course provides an overview of the knowledge and skills needed manage and administer fire investigation programs within an organized fire department.
